MEMORANDUM OF CONVERSATION
U.S. SALT DELEGATION

DATE: December 15, 1972
TIME: 12:00 - 12:15 p.m.
PLACE: U.S. Mission, Geneva

SUBJECT: SCC

PARTICIPANTS:

Col C.G. FitzGerald

USSR

Mr. V.S. Chulitsky

During the informal conversations following the Mini-Plenary, Mr. Chulitsky said he had heard the U.S. had some changes to suggest in the document establishing the SCC. He asked what type of changes. I said we did not know but thought they would be minor and editorial in nature. I thought it possible Mr. Graybeal might be calling Mr. Smolin this afternoon to ask for an SWG meeting. Mr. Chulitsky did not express any objections to such a meeting. He then asked whether there would be any suggestions for changes in the Agreed Points to be included in the SCC Regulations. I said I thought there would be. He said in that case it looks as if the SWG will have a lot of work to do next week. He thought that perhaps the U.S. Delegation might be able to attend the Soviet reception on December 21 as a result.
